

HARRISONBURG.

My trip to Harrisonburg which I had expected to make early in November was put off from time to time on account of the Influenza prevailing there and on account of which the school was closed. The accounts which should have been examined early in October will be gone over on my next visit.

Respectfully submitted,

Secretary-Auditor.