rolment up to

Enrolment for second session, 1910-1911, already 245, and will probably reach 260 by Commencement.

Summer Session this year will probably reach 300 students, if proper accommodations can be procured for them.

Present dormitories on school grounds accommodate only 148 students.

Since the opening of the school 505 different persons have registered as students.

About 200 persons added to the purchasing population of Harrisonburg by this institution, this number being in residence here practically the year round, and the number is increasing all the time. many of them are continually making purchases for their relatives and friends in the country districts from which they come, thus increasing considerably the number of customers for Harrisonburg's merchants.

IS THE NORMAL SCHOOL WORTH ANYTHING TO THE TOWN FINANCIALLY?
